ARE ALL EYES

DEFECTIVE?

Certain it is that many people experience no trouble with their eyes. Naturally a very large proportion of those who consult opticians or oculists have defective eyes, because the trouble they have leads them to the consultation.

There have been quite a number of people in to see me of late who have nothing at all the matter with their eyes.

If you have any doubt as to the condition of your eyes it will afford you a great deal of satisfaction to know positively. I shall be glad to tell you.

FOOTBALL TOMORROW.

Between Guilford College and Bingham School.

Correspondence Telegram.

Guilford College, N. C., Oct. 6.—The football team here will have its last practice here this evening before the game tomorrow. The men are in good condition and promise to give Bingham School a hard battle for the game. The latter's team has been in training now quite a while and may be looked for to put up a good game. All football enthusiasts must not fail to see this first game of the season to be played at Guilford College.

The trustees hold their regular meeting here today.

Miss Ruth Worth, of Raleigh, is a guest of her sister Annie.

Prof. J. F. Davis, gave a very profitable lecture here Saturday night on the "Relationship of the English to the German Language" which was enjoyed by all who attended.

From every quarter of the globe where high grade, reliable goods are to be found—these lines have been collected. We invite you to inspect—critically—everything we have here on display, and promise you a most interesting visit, if you avail yourselves of our hospitality.

A FEW OF THE CHIEF FEATURES FOR THE OCCASION:

The Newest Dress Goods

PLAIDS WILL RULE.

And there are a hundred plaids to pick from. Great wide affairs, in gay colors, soft love plaids, and plaids that blend one into the other; yet great or small, gay or subdued, all are bewitchingly pretty, and strictly low priced.

Reversible Golf Plaids

These new plaid back Golf Suitings are now selling about. Great scheme the dressmakers are carrying on this season—making skirts of this material, so that you can wear them on the plain side one day, and the plaid the next. Plaid-back Suitings sell for $1.49—$2.25 per yd.

The Newest of Swell Silks.

Besides the following that we mention you'll find all the newest, most stylish effects in cords, fancy stripes, plaids, changeables, taffetas, etc.

All Silk Heavy Black Taffeta

21 inches wide, and extra heavy with every penny of 60c, as a special at our opening, price, 50c yd.

Extra Quality Peau De Soie

WILL ACT ON THE DEFENSIVE.

The Boers Will Not Aggress Unless Driven to It by England.

THEIR ALLY, ORANGE FREE STATE

Will Only Defend Its Cherished Rights—President Steyn Addresses His Command.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Pretoria, Oct. 6.—The Volksraad, the official organ of the South African Republic, accuses Hertzog, the Afrikaner leader, and Premier Schreiner, of Cape Colony, who were reported on their way to Pretoria to prevent war, of backsliding, and expresses the hope that they will see the character of the British policy, adding that the Boers will not lay down their arms except upon the express understanding that the present crisis shall be brought to a close.

THE BURGERS ADDRESSED.

Bloemfontein, Oct. 6.—President Steyn, addressing his command in Market Square on Thursday, congratulated the burghers on the rapidity with which they had answered his call. He said the Free State did not intend to make any attacks, but would defend its cherished rights. The State was not strong, but if the enemy crossed the border he would meet its determined opposition. Concluding, the President exclaimed: "We would be fighting for the independence of our State."

WILL ATTACK THE FREE STATE.

Manchester, Oct. 6.—The Guardian's Cape Town correspondent says the Casutes will probably attack the Orange Free State.

A SENSATIONAL STORY.

Vienna, Oct. 6.—An extra of Blatte Pausta prints a story from London court circles that the queen decided last Sunday in the presence of her family and Premier Salisbury that she would sooner abdicate the throne than consent to war with the Boers.

CORRESPONDENT MISLED.

London, Oct. 6.—There is no doubt now that the correspondent was misled who telegraphed that the Boers were occupying Laing's Neck. They were probably Boer patrols who advanced to the Neck at night and retired at daybreak, and were mistaken for the general body.

Winston Dots.

Special to THE TELEGRAM. Winston, Oct. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Starr have gone to Wilson to visit their son, Geo. Starr.

L. W. Selwars, son of Dr. N. S. Selwars, left today for Washington to take a place in the agricultural department.

Rev. J. W. Frank has been appointed missionary to Japan by the M. P. church and will probably accept.

Wrecked Near Hatteras.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM. New York, Oct. 6.—The steamer Tallahassee arrived today from Savannah and reports that she passed the wreck of a sailing vessel yesterday to the north of Cape Hatteras, around which a United States cruiser was slowly steaming.

Diplomatic Relations Upturned.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM. Vienna, Oct. 6.—There is reported a rupture of diplomatic relations between Russia and Serbia. The Press reports that the Russian agent at Bulgaria has left.

Gallego Mills Property Sold.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM. Richmond, Va., Oct. 6.—The Gallego Mills property here was sold on Wednesday to a syndicate. It is understood it will be used as a cotton mill.

Going to Manila.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM. Newport News, Oct. 6.—Samson's squadron arrived this morning. It will be broken up very shortly, several of the vessels going to Manila.

Cotton.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM. New York, Oct. 6.—Cotton bids: December, 7.05; January, 9; February, 14; March, 17.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.

HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 6.

Miss Rena Worth left this morning for Wilmington.

Asheboro was represented here yesterday by C. E. Blair.

Homer Wheeler returned yesterday from a business trip south.

Messrs. W. T. and S. Bryant, of Randleman, were here yesterday.

Uncle William Clinard and family have moved to their farm at Abbott's Creek.

A gentleman with a view of establishing an overall factory was here this week.

The hollow meeting at Freeman's Mills is still in progress and will continue over Sunday.

W. D. Mendenhall, O. W. Monroe, and W. F. Alderman, of Greensboro, were visitors here yesterday.

R. L. Pickett, of this place, has been selected as a marshal for the coming horse fair at Winston.

Mrs. O. N. Richardson and children, Mrs. A. E. Tate and Miss Floy Richardson went to Greensboro this morning.

Messrs. Lena Freeman, of Archdale, passed through yesterday enroute home from a visit to relatives and friends in Davis county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Vestal, of Indiana, are visiting relatives and friends in the city. Mr. Vestal left this country for the west just after the civil war.

A. V. Sepp, the racket man, has taken out himself a horse. He will now have a little pleasure racket aside from his every day business racket.

Don't forget the musical and literary entertainment at the M. E. church tonight. Help a worthy cause by your attendance. Admission 10c and 15c.

Mrs. Frances Vreem, of Silver City, who has been visiting the families of Dr. J. R. Reitzel and J. L. Krasan, left last night for a stay of several days at Pineville, S. C.

The vacant lot on Main street between the property of P. L. Payne and W. P. Welch has been purchased from Mrs. Martin by Dr. D. A. Stanton and a lawyer Westcott Robertson.

Charles King as "Mephisto" is the principal actor in the great and thrilling play, "Faust," which will be presented in the opera house here Monday night the 8th. If this play is presented here as in Greensboro last year it will be worth going miles to see.

And why shouldn't it be it is the same game. It is a grand play. Get your reserved seats at once at Stanton's right away. Admission 35 and 50 cents.

In response to an invitation we went around the other day to see the unique suite of furniture constructed of pine poles for W. G. Brokaw, owner of Fair View Lodge, located about seven miles from here in Randolph county. It was made at the High Point furniture factory by Alphonzo Ellison. It is to be placed in Mr. Brokaw's log cabin just completed on his estate. Every piece in the suite shows skillful work and is strongly put together. Pine poles in the rough state are used in the construction of the suite which comprises six pieces as follows: Bedstead, bureau, table, two chairs and a stool. The bed is about eight feet high with cross beams on p-like joist style. The center table is large enough to accommodate eight or ten persons at a sitting. The chairs look quite "clumsy" with their "V" backs and rough boards for bottoms. The bureau is a piece of art and looks very pretty as well as solid in its rough dress. The stool is made square with a tapering post like those used by our great grandfathers. It is truly an interesting suite and is a treat to see it. When placed in the cabin, the fire place of which burns fixed foot wood, and everything is fixed for house keeping Mr. Brokaw can congratulate himself on the possession of a typical log cabin house.

F R A NEW HOTEL.

It is Genuine, Bona Fide News—The Statement Confirmed.

The announcement made yesterday that the Benbow site had been sold to Messrs. Merrimon and Wharton was bona fide. We state this because we have been asked several times if the news was true.

A member of the Southern Loan and Trust Co. was seen this morning and he assures us there can be no mistake about it. We did not doubt it, but some people were afraid there was some mistake, and that the new hotel would not materialize.

But it will be a "go." The men interested in the business and there will be no time lost in getting to work. People have been complaining because of the crowded condition of our hotels and many are staying away. This condition of things, we are assured, will soon be remedied, and we shall have a hotel here that will be a "feather."

We Are Ready.

All kinds of furniture upholstered and mattresses renovated and made new at a small cost at the Gate City Mattress & Upholstering Co. W. W. Workman, manager.

"It must be risky to sleep in dem lodgin' houses," remarked the first hobo. "Just think what might happen in case of fire." "Dat's so," rejoined his companion; "de firemen might turn de hose on ye; mightn't dey?"

A CARD.

Reply to Enquirer in Yesterday's Telegram.

The King's Daughters' hospital was closed in October, 1893, for want of appliances needed to gain pay patients and therefore a partial self support.

The debt on the building was then $400 at 8 per cent. O. F. Pearce held the note, which he transferred in 1894 to David Wharton, the interest being reduced in 1895 to 6 per cent, only.

The accompanying statement (which was to be published next month) shows the disposition of funds.

The house has been rented for length of time shown at only $10 per month, we reserving two rooms for storage of furniture.

In November we expect to pay balance of the debt and do some repairs on building. I do not know what the King's Daughters will wish to do with the property, which they consider as belonging to the generous contributors who saved by the enterprise so faithfully in the past. They wish to see the property used for hospital purposes, as it was contributed for that purpose. They thought best to control the property until the building debt was paid, but I do not think they wish to do so any longer. Some action will be taken by November 1st, and will be published in the city papers. Any question will be cheerfully answered if addressed to the undersigned, and any advice gladly received. The Telegram article was not seen until yesterday too late for a reply till today.

Another Doctor for Greensboro.

We take the following from the Lexington Dispatch:

"Dr. John Thames, who has been well and favorably known to the people of this town and county for the past five years, has decided to move to the city of Greensboro for the practice of his profession. In leaving Lexington he gives up a large and lucrative practice of which any doctor might be proud. As a general practitioner Dr. Thames has taken high rank, while in surgery he has but few equals. He has a fine family, is a prominent member of the Presbyterian church and his many friends regret that he finds it to his interest to go for a number of years he has been county coroner and county superintendent of health."

The Telegram extends to Dr. Thames on behalf of the good people of our city a most cordial welcome among us.

A HOT CAMPAIGN IN OHIO.

Situation in the President's State Alarming to the Republicans

EXCELLENT BUSINESS OUTLOOK

In the South for the Winter—Railroads Anticipating a Large Increase in Traffic

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, October 6.—Republican officials are becoming alarmed over the Ohio situation. This is evident from the statements made, and the fact that several members of the administration are preparing to leave Washington for the state to take part in the campaign during the present month.

McLean's canvass has been much more thorough than most republicans have imagined to be the case, and the administration people are waking up to the fact that there is a hot campaign in progress in the president's state.

The wide-spread opposition to Senator Hanna in Ohio is what is giving the republicans alarm. The fact that Senator Foraker is doing his best to keep his followers in line for Nas, the republican nominee for governor, encourages the administration, but they realize that it is not always possible for a leader to keep his following together, when the fight is being made a personal one, such

The amateur detective is as humorous a character as any of Shakespeare's clowns, or even old Dogberry himself. He finds the most astonishing clues, and generally follows them until he brings up about as far away from the solution of the mystery as mortal well may be. But the Indian reads a trail. Every step he takes is a step to success.

It's much the same way in the detection of crime. Sherlock Holmes, as the Indian reads a trail. Every step he takes is a step to success. The specialist goes right to the real cause and puts an arresting hand upon the disease. It is in such a way that Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., succeeds in hunting out and arresting diseases, where the less experienced practitioners fail. More than thirty years of special study and experience have enabled Dr. Pierce to read symptoms as easily and as truly as the Indian reads a trail which is without a hint for a less acute vision than his. Any sick person can consult Dr. Pierce absolutely without charge. Each letter is read in private and answered in private. Its contents are held as sacredly confidential. It is answered with fidelity as well as medical skill and the reply is sent sealed in a perfectly plain envelope, that there may be no third party to the correspondence. Thousands have taken the first step to health by writing to Dr. Pierce. No writer ever regretted writing. Ninety-eight in every hundred treated have been positively cured. If you are afflicted with any old obstinate ailment write to-day, you will be one day nearer health. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

A. B. Kimball went to Raleigh this morning.

T. H. Vanderford, of Salisbury, has been here most of the week attending federal court.

Mr. Burke Pfohl, of Salem, manager of Fogle Bros., contractors, spent last night at the Allen.

D. J. Carter, of Charlotte, representing the Southern Newspaper Union, was in the city to-day.

Mrs. S. E. Hudson, who has been visiting for a few days at Oak Ridge, is expected to return home tonight.

Chas. D. Newlin and Walter Hill, of Carthage, Ind., are in the city for a few days. They are relatives of Mr. O. S. Newlin, of this city, and former North Carolinians.

An Impassive Scene.

One of the most impressive scenes ever witnessed in Greensboro, Ga., was the baptism of Bud Hackett at the Baptist church Wednesday night. Rev. Alex. W. Bealer, the pastor, of Atlanta, a little more than a year ago a dance was given on the place of Mr. Levi Bealer, eight miles from Carversville. It was in the house of one of the tenants, Hackett and a young man named Morris were there. Hackett was drinking, and in a row that took place, shot Morris and killed him. He made his escape and was gone for a year, when he was captured and sentenced to be hanged. When the sentence of the court was pronounced Hackett fainted, and quite a scene took place. Soon afterwards he sent for Mr. Bealer, and to him made a profession of religion. He desired to be baptized. It was deemed best to wait until a final disposition of the case was made. Governor Chandler last Friday, on recommendation of the pardon board, commuted the sentence of death to imprisonment on the penitentiary for life. Judge Pittman, an order and allowed the prisoner to be taken to the church. At 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night, in charge of Officers Burroughs and Pickett, he was taken to the church, where the hand-cuffs were removed. He sat on a front seat between two officers. Near by was his young wife and his mother. In the wife's lap the prisoner's baby slept. The baptismal ceremony followed the sermon. —Baltimore Sun.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

R. B. Crawford, of Winston, was in the city today.

The oyster supper commences at 7:30 and runs until 12.

Accommodation for all at the band oyster supper tonight.

"Nick" Mebane has been in the city most of the time this week.

W. H. Andrews, of Raleigh, was here at noon today going north.

Mrs. W. R. Pleasant left at noon to join her husband at Pinehurst.

Judge W. H. Eller went down to Liberty this afternoon to assist in a meeting near there.

Don't forget and eat too much supper, but come out and help the band get new instruments.

Mr. O. Williams, who has been confined to his home by sickness was able to come up town today.

Miss Maggie Pritchett has returned from an extended visit to friends in the western part of the state.

It will pay you to keep your eyes on the advertising columns of the Tele-gram during the next few days.

Two cases for retelling, against Essie Ervin, will be heard before his honor Mayor Taylor this afternoon.

Come early and avoid the rush at the Banner warehouse tonight. You know what it is. The band oyster supper and concert.

Hudson has a very full stock of good things for tomorrow. His ad will give you an idea of the diversity of his layout.

Patrons will confer a favor on the management by promptly reporting all failures of the carriers to deliver the Telegram promptly.

Bishop Cheshire will be at St. Barnabas church Sunday morning and not as previously published on Wednesday. Horace Weeks Jones.

Owing to the illness of the Bishop, the confirmation services both at St. Barnabas and St. Andrew's churches will be postponed until further notice.

Ben Wilkerson gave the $500.00 bond required of him by the justice for shooting Ben Jennings and is now at liberty, having remained in jail about five days.

W. O. Cox, advance agent for Leon W. Wa-burn's Minstrels, is billing the city today. The attraction will be at the Academy of Music on the 13th of October.

It is learned the case of the U. S. against W. E. Black will not be tried at this term of court, the defendant not being present, owing to sickness, we are informed.

Chas. B. Wilkerson will return to Thomasville tonight, where he has a large building under way. His brother, R. E. Wilkerson, returns to Durham tonight.

Don't miss hearing the concert to-night at the Banner warehouse given by the Gato City Band. Come out and see the improvement and progress the band has made since gala week.

There seems to be little change in the condition of Ben Jennings, who was shot a week ago tonight. If he gets well it will be by a close shave. He has several times been reported dead.

The funeral of Alma Jacobs, who died yesterday at the Finishing Mill, was conducted from the residence to-day by Rev. Dr. Smith and the remains carried to Winston for interment.

The Southern Loan and Trust Co.'s new home is a handsome one. The offices are spacious, light and roomy. We congratulate the officers and clerks on their elegant quarters.

It will not cost you a cent to take the hawks leaving court house square and McAdoo House next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Jordan & McDonald's land sale near the Normal College.

Oysters in any style, fruits, ice cream, cake, music and everything in reason to make the oyster supper a place of pleasure tonight. Seats for all. You can be sure of accommodation and a good time if you are present.

The Telegram welcomes its young friends, Messrs. Smith & Murchison, as candidates for favor and patronage in the grocery business. As announced, they have bought out Mr. M. S. Jeffers, and will continue the business at the same stand, next door to Hudson's.

The millinery opening of Mrs. Cator & Co will be announced in a few days. Miss Martha Brown, of New York, has returned and will again have charge of the trimming department. Miss Bray and Mrs. A. S. Cator will also be with the firm again this season.

Johnson & Dorsett are men of few words, but when they speak they mean much. Their advertisements are never crowded with declarations which strain the English language, but you can put it down that they mean all that strong language and descriptive adjectives can imply. Their new stock of goods is ready for your inspection and you are invited to call and see them.

A Street Scene.

Yesterday afternoon two federal court attendants from one of the moonshine counties were coming down South Elm and met a darkey returning from the market with a string of the finny tribe for supper. The attention of the cliff-dwellers was immediately riveted, and turning about they watched the colored man and his goods with wide-mouthed curiosity until the distance intervening began to grow serious. One of them then suddenly yelled with Turkey Trot accents: "Say, whar ver gwine 'er cook them fish at?" The darkey, who had a very well developed bearing, answered as he vanished in his place of business—a restaurant—"Right here." The fellows immediately reached the snack-house and disappeared inside with that dexterity which is only engendered by a good digestion and a keen appetite for fish.

AN AUTUMN JUNKET.

Trip Through Western Guilford Around by Oak Ridge.

It was the pleasure of the editor of the Telegram to visit Oak Ridge yesterday for the first time. We left Greensboro early in the morning by private conveyance, and with Mr. W. J. Ridge as a traveling companion, drove out by the Battle Ground and Summerfield. It was our pleasure to meet the merchants at these places. Business was almost at a standstill, the cause being the very busy season with the farmers in seeding wheat. The village merchant understands this and it does not give him the blues. He knows that good working seasons insure larger crops and larger crops insure a bigger trade when the trading season comes along. People have to make money before they can spend it.

At Summerfield we found ex-Sheriff Joe Hoskins sitting on a railroad bank farming, or rather watching operations going on. He said he was farming. He extended us a very cordial invitation to spend the night with him, but it was yet early in the day and we had to drive on.

Reaching Oak Ridge just before noon we found a very pretty school village on a beautiful plat of ground studded with giant oaks, near the corner of which stands the classic looking buildings of Oak Ridge Institute, that splendid school, owned and superintended by Prof. J. A. & M. B. Holt. We made a rather hurried survey of the school and its surroundings, and decided, with all who have seen it, that it is a model. The society halls are elegant in their rich furnishings, and one of them is presided over by a Greensboro boy, Elnoy Ridge. His friends will also be glad to learn that he has been elected one of the editors of the Oak Leaf, the school paper. To him, as well as to Professors Holt and Whitaker, we are indebted for courtesies while there.

We were invited to stay and witness a practice game of football in the afternoon, but it began to rain and we started home about three o'clock. Returning we drove by Guilford College, that staid and solid old institution of the Quakers. Like Oak Ridge, it is admirably located in a pretty oak grove, the stately brick buildings making an imposing view. As the rain was increasing and the red dirt turning into mud we did not tarry long, only long enough to call on our friend Mr. Lee S. Smith, a prominent merchant there.

It was a pleasant trip, and gave us a better acquaintance and knowledge of the beauty and resources of the goodly county of which Greensboro is the capital. We hope to go that way again. We will add just here that the work of road grading has done most good in that section, and now for masadain.

Men's Viscol Calf, British cap, calf-lined, triple-soled tan shoes, at $3.50, are excelled by none and equalled by few. We would like to show you a pair of these and leave it to your own judgment to say if they are not as good as the shoes you see elsewhere priced four and sometimes five dollars a pair.

Thacker & Brockmann.

Mr. E. R. Neems will call at your house with samples to select from, if you have any article of furniture you wish upholstered, and will send your address to 125 Buchanan street. W. W. Workman, manager.

The Four Winds.

In winter, when the wind I hear,
I know the clouds will disappear;
For 'tis the wind who sweeps the sky
And piles the snow in ridges high.

In spring, when stirs the wind, I know
That soon the crocus buds will show;
For 'tis the wind who bids them wake
And into pretty blossoms break.

In summer, when it softly blows,
Soon red I know will be the rose,
For 'tis the wind to her who speaks
And brings the blushes to her cheeks.

In autumn, when the wind is up,
I know the acorn's out its cup;
For 'tis the wind who takes it out,
And plants an oak somewhere about.
